EDMOND, Okla. -- Nebraska-Omaha has been tabbed the favorite to win the 2009 NCAA Division II national wrestling championship, according to the preseason poll released Monday by the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association.

The Mavericks of long-time head coach Mike Denney, who won three straight titles from 2004-06 and were third last year, earned six first-place votes in finishing with 158 points to top the poll.

Minnesota State-Mankato received the other two first-place votes in balloting of coaches from around the country and is second with 149 points as the Mavericks look to improve on last year's runner-up finish.

Defending champion Nebraska-Kearney, which edged Mankato by a mere half-point for last year's title, is third in the rankings with 144 points, followed by Adams State (136 points) and Western State (126).

Rounding out the top 10 is six-time Division II champion Central Oklahoma, Newberry, Pittsburgh-Johnstown, Chadron State and Upper Iowa.

The 2009 NCAA Division II Wrestling Championships are set for March 13-14 in Houston, Texas.

The top 20 poll, with points and last year's national tournament finish:
